About the Aziz Foundation

The Aziz Foundation is an independent grant making body that seeks to support the most disadvantaged communities in Britain. It aims to do this through development in these communities, and greater public engagement by these communities in wider society. The Foundation seeks to support individuals and projects, strengthen organisations and networks, and help incubate innovative ideas that will ultimately improve the conditions in and for these sections of our society.

Job Purpose

The Aziz Foundation has identified two distinct workstreams – one of which is Community Development, which seeks to support and strengthen grassroots community organisations within Muslim communities. The post holder will have responsibility for projects management in this workstream – including the development and delivery of projects within agreed budgets and timelines, and monitoring, evaluation and impact assessment of this work. The post holder will support the Assistant Director in projects and staff management. S/he will also form a key part of the management team (MT), and thereby, work alongside other managers in assisting the Director and Deputy Director in developing and delivering the Foundation's corporate vision, strategic work programme, management structures and processes, annual work plan, public relations work, and dispensing other corporate responsibilities and tasks as required.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

The main duties and responsibilities of this post will include the following:

a) Corporate

- Support, motivate and help develop staff, volunteers and residents so that they are committed to working effectively toward continual improvement.

b) Work Stream Projects Management

- Support delivery of the vision and work of the Community Development workstream in line with and within agreed budgets and key deliverables, to a high quality, meeting the needs of the target group(s) and strategic objectives.
- Set up relevant Advisory, Steering and Working Groups and Sub-Groups for the Community Development projects as required and manage exploration and development of new ideas/projects that meet the overall objectives and criteria of the workstream.
- Manage Officers, support them to deliver on outputs and conduct bi-annual performance appraisals.
- Collaborate with other managers and staff, to assist where possible and pick up work where required.

c) Coordination of the General and Development Fund

- Work with the Grants Officer to support key projects that address the challenges/needs in Muslim communities.
- Identify bright sparks with innovative ideas from Muslim communities that would greatly benefit from the Foundation's incubation package.
- Work with Officers to evaluate projects funded to measure and monitor impact.
- Develop co-operation/partnerships with other funders and stakeholders doing similar work.

d) Coordination of Communities Development Projects

- Manage and support Officer(s) in:
 - identifying the key sectors in Muslim communities which would benefit from standards setting and accreditation/status schemes.
 - supporting key projects that address the challenges/needs in Muslim communities.
 - supporting key organisations that can be further strengthened (i.e. organisational development) or supported to scale up delivery/impact.
- Work with strategic partners to map routes to better/best practice/beacon status and assist a selection of organisations in each sector to get there as trailblazers/models for others.
- Monitor work of grantees, undertake relevant field visits and periodic evaluations - to ensure that funds are spent in accordance with the grant agreements and that the best possible results are being achieved and evaluate impact where appropriate.
- Create a sustainability plan for CPD (continuing professional development) purposes, where courses, training and workshops are developed to continue to raise standards in the sectors we are working in.

e) Relationship Management

- Maintain relationships with key institutions and partners relevant to the Community Development workstream.
- Identify new grantees, and develop strong, positive, and long-standing relationships with them.
- Build up a network of funders, leaders and practitioners relevant to this workstream, and develop a positive and beneficial relationship with them in relation to the Foundation's work.

f) Residencies Management

- Monitor progress and development needs of residents within the Community Development workstream – where required, arrange for support with organisational development, financial planning/sustainability development, etc.
- Support the Beehive staff to operate and maintain in good order the incubation hub.

It is anticipated that the JD may change in the long term as the Foundation and its work grows, but this will always be done in discussion with the post holder.
